RYE BARCOTT:

It Happened on the Way to War

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 13

2:00-4:00 pm

Bouck Auditorium

~ book signing to follow ~

Rye's signature presentation on social entrepreneurship and military service takes audiences on a journey through the joy and heartbreak, the friendships and betrayals, and the failures and triumphs of waging peace while fighting war.

Rye Barcott cofounded the non-governmental organization Carolina for Kibera (CFK) while he was an undergraduate at the University of North Carolina and a Marine Corps officer. CFK invests in local leaders in one of the world's largest slums through its model of participatory development. What are the lessons learned from two worlds of service that can seem contradictory to one another? How can you make an impact as a student? Come out and find out.
